

Chapter 5 — Parent Communication

30 prompts

The email you have been putting off is usually the one where the facts are clear but the tone is not. These prompts separate the two: state what happened, describe what you have already tried, make one specific ask — and leave out everything you cannot actually know.

What's in here

Group	Prompts	Use when
Positive notes	6	The highest-return five minutes in teaching
Concern emails	6	Something needs saying, carefully
Conference preparation	5	Ten minutes each, twenty-four families
Newsletters	4	Rough notes into something readable
Permissions and logistics	4	Trips, forms, deadlines
Clear and accessible language	3	Plain wording, any reading level
Difficult conversations	2	When it is already tense

Worth knowing before you start

Describe behaviour, never character. "Three tasks are not recorded as submitted" is a fact. "He is unmotivated" is a guess about a child you are writing to their family about.

Do not let it infer a home cause. If it writes "with support at home this will improve", cut that line — you do not know what home looks like.

Read the draft as the parent, at 8am, on a phone. Anything that reads as blame will be answered as blame.

Ask for a shorter version too. Many families will not read past four lines.

PC-001 · Write a specific positive family message

All grades · Any subject

Handle with care. Read the safety page before using this one.

WHEN YOU NEED THIS

You want to share genuine, evidence-based progress.

COPY FROM HERE

Write a specific positive family message.

Required inputs:

- [GRADE_SUBJECT: exact age/grade and subject]
- [GOAL: the learning or communication purpose]
- [OBSERVED_STRENGTH: supply verified information; do not leave blank]
- [SPECIFIC_EVIDENCE: supply verified information; do not leave blank]
- [CHANNEL: supply verified information; do not leave blank]
- [CONSTRAINTS: duration, format, resources and approved access requirements; write none only if confirmed]

Specific requirements:

Write a brief positive message anchored to one observation. Avoid adding a concern or unsupported personality claim.

Output:

Return the named artifact with all questions, directions, examples or text needed for the task; put teacher keys and notes separately from student/family-facing text.

TO HERE

BEFORE YOU SEND IT

- Factual claims trace to supplied evidence; proposals and unknowns are labelled.
- Answers and subject content checked independently; access and local policy preserved.
- No identifying or sensitive records were shared; final recipient/content checked locally.

Example — an editorial illustration, not a logged AI run

Dear Family, Today, [LEARNER] supported a science discussion claim with two details from the class text. This is a useful step toward explaining ideas with evidence. You could invite them to tell you which detail they found most convincing. Best, [TEACHER]. Add identities only in the approved local system. This positive note does not invent a recurring pattern from one observation.

PC-002 · Communicate an academic concern with a next step

All grades · Any subject

Handle with care. Read the safety page before using this one.

WHEN YOU NEED THIS

A family needs clear facts and a manageable path forward.

COPY FROM HERE

Communicate an academic concern with a next step.

Required inputs:

- [GRADE_SUBJECT: exact age/grade and subject]
- [GOAL: the learning or communication purpose]
- [VERIFIED_CONCERN: supply verified information; do not leave blank]
- [SUPPORT_TRIED: supply verified information; do not leave blank]
- [NEXT_STEP: supply verified information; do not leave blank]
- [CONSTRAINTS: duration, format, resources and approved access requirements; write none only if confirmed]

Specific requirements:

State the concern factually, describe support and invite collaboration. Do not infer home causes or promise improvement.

Output:

Return the named artifact with all questions, directions, examples or text needed for the task; put teacher keys and notes separately from student/family-facing text.

TO HERE

BEFORE YOU SEND IT

- Factual claims trace to supplied evidence; proposals and unknowns are labelled.
- Answers and subject content checked independently; access and local policy preserved.
- No identifying or sensitive records were shared; final recipient/content checked locally.

Example — an editorial illustration, not a logged AI run

Dear Family, Two practice tasks, dated September 1 and September 3, are not yet recorded as submitted. I have offered a ten-minute in-class catch-up opportunity. Could you let me know if there is information that would help us plan the next step? Best, [TEACHER]. Verify the submission record before sending. Do not infer refusal, home support or motivation.

PC-003 · Prepare a balanced family conference

All grades · Any subject

Handle with care. Read the safety page before using this one.

WHEN YOU NEED THIS

Choose this focused tool when your immediate task is to prepare a balanced family conference.

COPY FROM HERE

Prepare a balanced family conference.

Required inputs:

- [GRADE_SUBJECT: exact age/grade and subject]
- [GOAL: the learning or communication purpose]
- [STRENGTH: supply verified information; do not leave blank]
- [CONCERN: supply verified information; do not leave blank]
- [CONFERENCE_MINUTES: supply verified information; do not leave blank]
- [CONSTRAINTS: duration, format, resources and approved access requirements; write none only if confirmed]

Specific requirements:

Build an agenda that balances evidence and family perspective. Leave agreed actions blank until agreement actually occurs.

Output:

Return the named artifact with all questions, directions, examples or text needed for the task; put teacher keys and notes separately from student/family-facing text.

TO HERE

BEFORE YOU SEND IT

- Factual claims trace to supplied evidence; proposals and unknowns are labelled.
- Answers and subject content checked independently; access and local policy preserved.
- No identifying or sensitive records were shared; final recipient/content checked locally.

Example — an editorial illustration, not a logged AI run

Agenda: welcome and purpose 2 minutes; review one diagram and explanation 4; listen to family and learner perspective 4; discuss one support 3; confirm next step 2. Proposed support: use an evidence-linking sentence frame in class. Agreement, owner and review date remain blank until discussed. Do not present a proposed plan as already accepted by the family.

PC-004 · Draft a useful class newsletter

All grades · Any subject

Handle with care. Read the safety page before using this one.

WHEN YOU NEED THIS

Families need a concise update they can act on.

COPY FROM HERE

Draft a useful class newsletter.

Required inputs:

- [GRADE_SUBJECT: exact age/grade and subject]
- [GOAL: the learning or communication purpose]
- [VERIFIED_CLASS_NEWS: supply verified information; do not leave blank]
- [DATES: supply verified information; do not leave blank]
- [ACTIONS: supply verified information; do not leave blank]
- [CONSTRAINTS: duration, format, resources and approved access requirements; write none only if confirmed]

Specific requirements:

Organize learning highlights, upcoming dates and required actions. Exclude individual student information from a class-wide newsletter.

Output:

Return the named artifact with all questions, directions, examples or text needed for the task; put teacher keys and notes separately from student/family-facing text.

TO HERE

BEFORE YOU SEND IT

- Factual claims trace to supplied evidence; proposals and unknowns are labelled.
- Answers and subject content checked independently; access and local policy preserved.
- No identifying or sensitive records were shared; final recipient/content checked locally.

Example — an editorial illustration, not a logged AI run

This week: We used equal-sized models to explore fractions. Next week: We will compare fractions and explain our choices. Action: Please return class library books on Friday. Optional conversation: Ask your learner why the size of the whole matters. Confirm the actual calendar date before sending. No learner names, scores or identifiable stories belong in the class-wide version.

- [EARLIER_EVIDENCE: supply verified information; do not leave blank]
- [LATER_EVIDENCE: supply verified information; do not leave blank]
- [CONSTRAINTS: duration, format, resources and approved access requirements; write none only if confirmed]

Specific requirements:

Describe growth only where observations are comparable. State the specific change without extrapolating overall progress.

Output:

Return the named artifact with all questions, directions, examples or text needed for the task; put teacher keys and notes separately from student/family-facing text.

TO HERE

BEFORE YOU SEND IT

- Factual claims trace to supplied evidence; proposals and unknowns are labelled.
- Answers and subject content checked independently; access and local policy preserved.
- No identifying or sensitive records were shared; final recipient/content checked locally.

Example — an editorial illustration, not a logged AI run

Dear Family, In the later writing task, [LEARNER] explained how two source details supported the claim. In the earlier comparable task, the explanation listed a detail without explaining the connection. The next classroom step is to evaluate which evidence is strongest. This describes a specific change in these tasks, not a claim about every piece of writing.

PC-006 · Recognize a learner's helpful contribution without using labels

- [HELPFUL_ACTION: supply verified information; do not leave blank]
- [OBSERVED_IMPACT: supply verified information; do not leave blank]
- [CONSTRAINTS: duration, format, resources and approved access requirements; write none only if confirmed]

Specific requirements:

Recognize the action and its classroom impact. Avoid labels such as natural leader or best student.

Output:

Return the named artifact with all questions, directions, examples or text needed for the task; put teacher keys and notes separately from student/family-facing text.

TO HERE

BEFORE YOU SEND IT

- Factual claims trace to supplied evidence; proposals and unknowns are labelled.
- Answers and subject content checked independently; access and local policy preserved.
- No identifying or sensitive records were shared; final recipient/content checked locally.

Example — an editorial illustration, not a logged AI run

Dear Family, Today, [LEARNER] explained our materials-return routine to a partner, and the pair was then able to begin the next task. I wanted to recognize that helpful action. Best, [TEACHER]. The note names an observed contribution without labelling the learner a natural leader, always helpful or better than classmates.

PC-007 · Write a brief celebration message suitable for a mobile screen
